Find paradise on Earth with the beautiful beaches in and around Phuket

BEACHES AROUND PHUKET

"

Because there's nothing more beautiful than the way
the ocean refuses to stop kissing the shoreline,
no matter how many times it's sent away.

- Sarah Kay

Natai Beach

A tranquil haven located in the province of Phang Nga, Natai Beach is a 10-kilometer stretch of beautiful sand and turquoise waters. This location gives travellers a feeling of exclusivity and a relaxing separation from bustling Phuket. In contrast to the other popular beach spots in the area with water sports activities and towering structures, Natai Beach simply offers lush greenery and an unobstructed view of the sparkling ocean, making it a perfect location for those who truly want to bask in the comforts of nature.

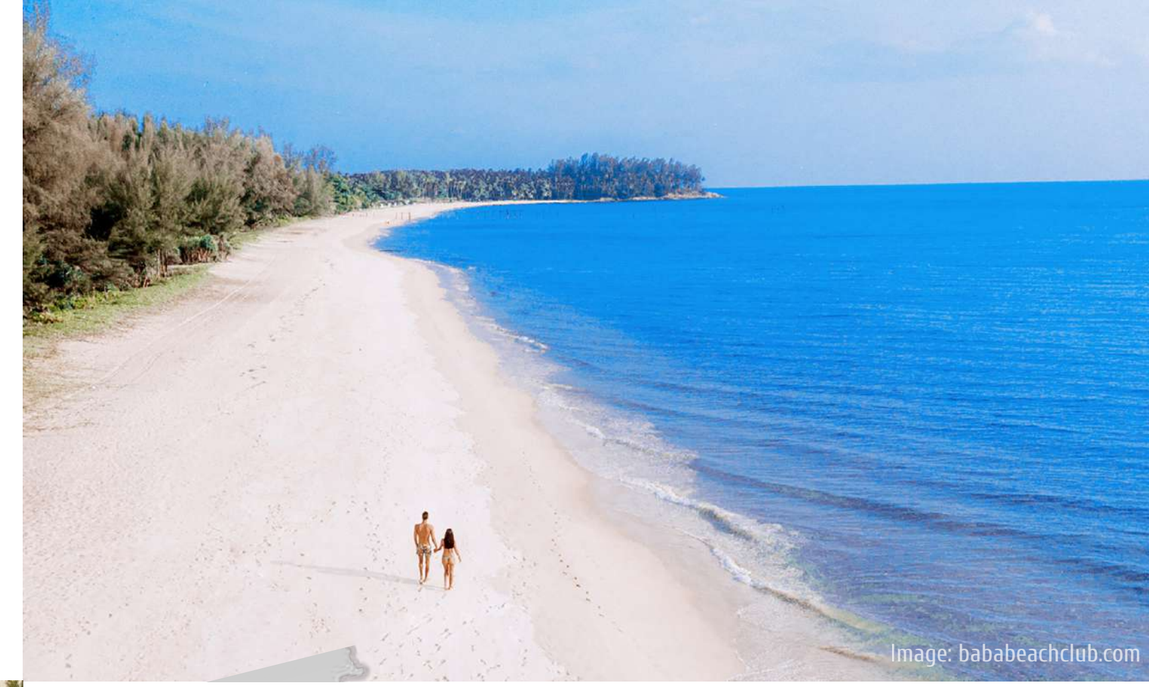

Image: bababeachclub.com

Image: bababeachclub.com

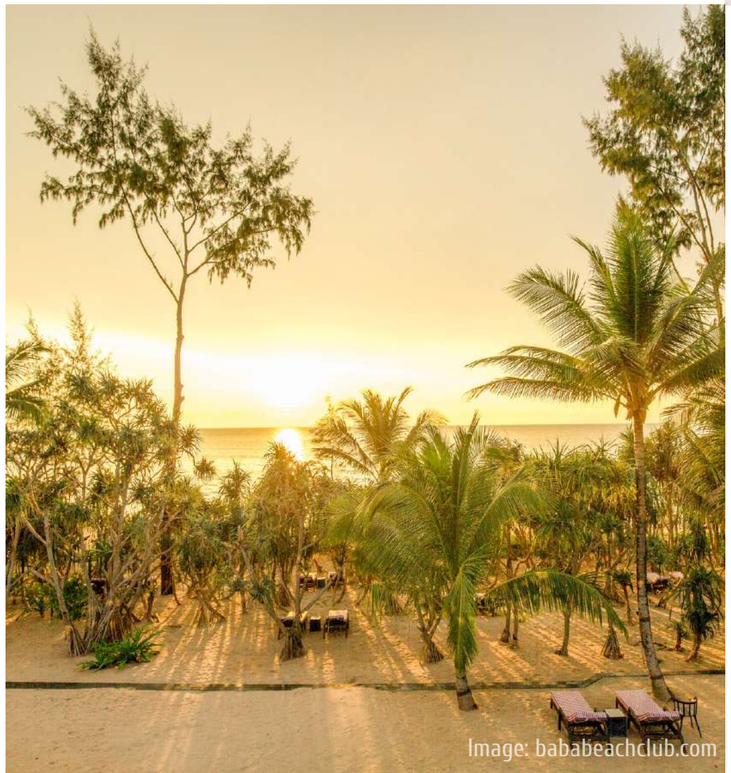

Image: bababeachclub.com

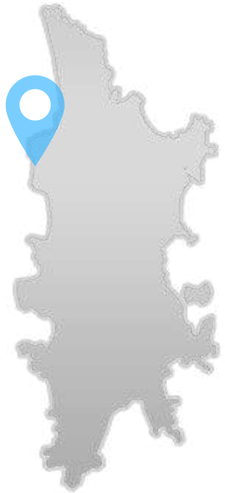
Location:
Khao Lak, Phang Nga Province

Activities:
Strolling by the beach, swimming, snorkelling

Image: Filk via phuket-maps.com

Naithon Beach

Naithon Beach is a magnificent beach strip where visitors can enjoy a quiet swim away from the crowds. It is amazingly long and wide, well shaded by tall trees and divided in two by a small rock formation. Beyond these rocks, visitors can reach a more private area of Naithon. The sand is smooth, and swimming is excellent during the high season. Loungers, umbrellas and drinks are available as well as a small restaurant at the very south of Naithon.



Location:
Naithon

Activities:
Swimming, paddle boarding, surfing during high season, scuba diving (can be arranged by the dive shop along Beach Road)

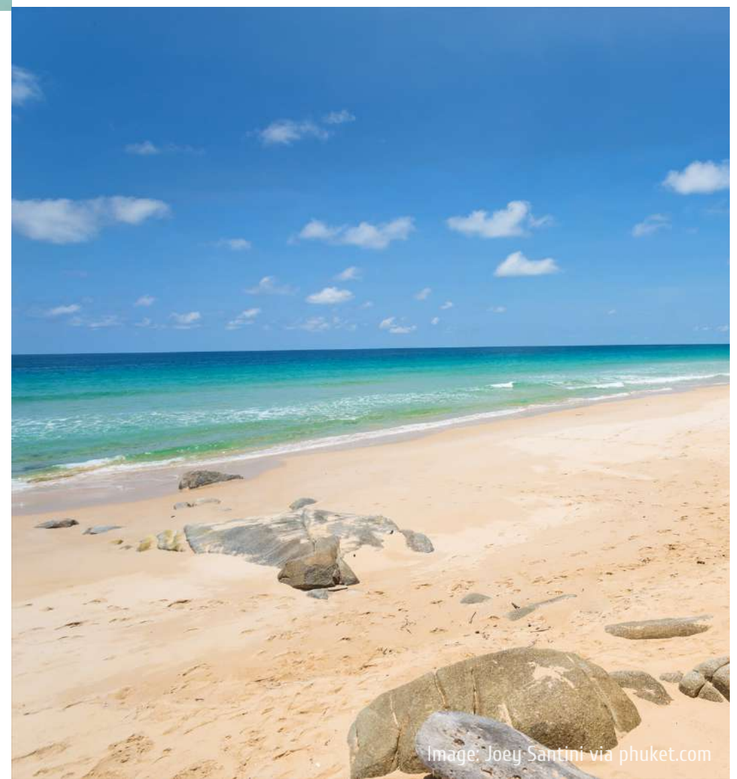


Image: Joey Santini via phuket.com

Image: blog.airpaz.com

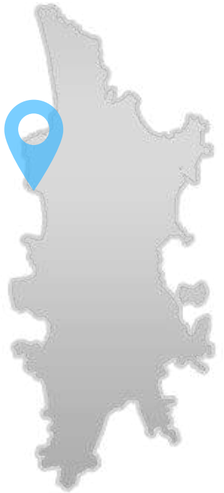
Banana Beach

Banana Beach is a hidden treasure with a 180-meter stretch of clear, blue waters and powdery sand nestled by towering palm trees. Relatively isolated, Banana Beach is a quiet spot excellent for swimming and snorkeling. Restaurants that offer fresh and delicious seafood are also nearby so visitors can have a peaceful yet enjoyable lunch by the beach while being conveniently shaded by the surrounding greenery.

Image: phuket.com

Image: Asia Web Direct via phuket.com

Image: phuket.com



Location:
Banana Beach

Activities:
Swimming, snorkelling

Image: phuket.com

Bangtao and Layan Beaches

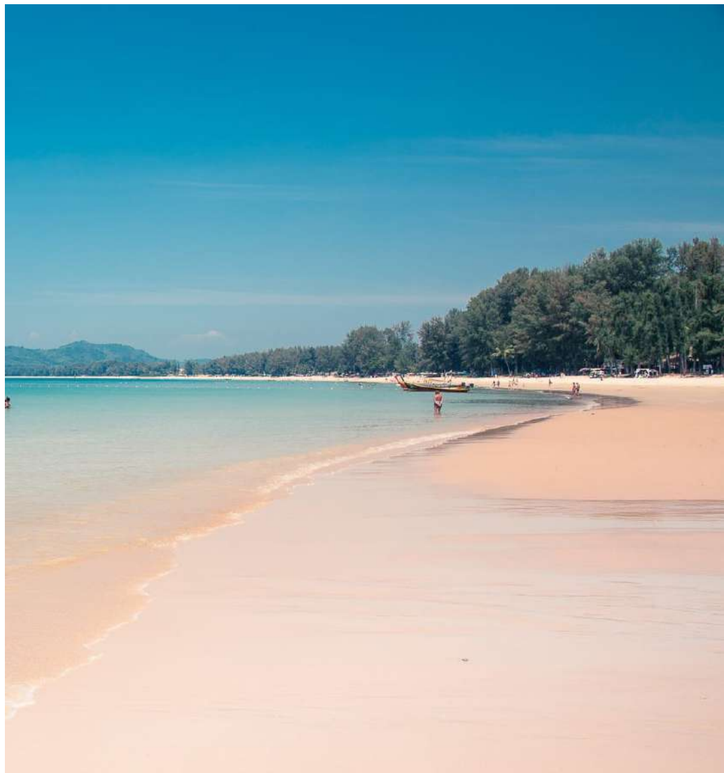
One of the longest beaches of Phuket, Bangtao Beach is a tourist spot that boasts of beautiful white sand and pristine waters. Through the years, it has become one of the most versatile and vibrant destinations in the island offering an incredible array of shopping and dining options to tourists.

Located at the northern part of Bangtao is Layan Beach, the tranquil side of the strip where travelers can spend some time relaxing on the shore under the cooling shade of lush trees in the area.

Location:
Bangtao

Activities:
Swimming, strolling by the beach, snorkeling, parasailing

Image: Stephen Audiger via phuket.com



Surin Beach

Surin Beach is one of the more sophisticated locations in Phuket where visitors can enjoy the feel of fine white sand and a view of the glittering blue sea. Found along the "Millionaire's Row," this beach is surrounded by high-end boutiques and luxury resorts that cater to the select few. During the day, visitors of Surin Beach can enjoy swimming in the calm, clear waters of Surin Beach and try exciting water sport activities offered in the area. At night, guests can enjoy a fun-filled evening by joining the revelries of the many premier beach clubs in the area.

Image: Parshina Marina via phuket.com

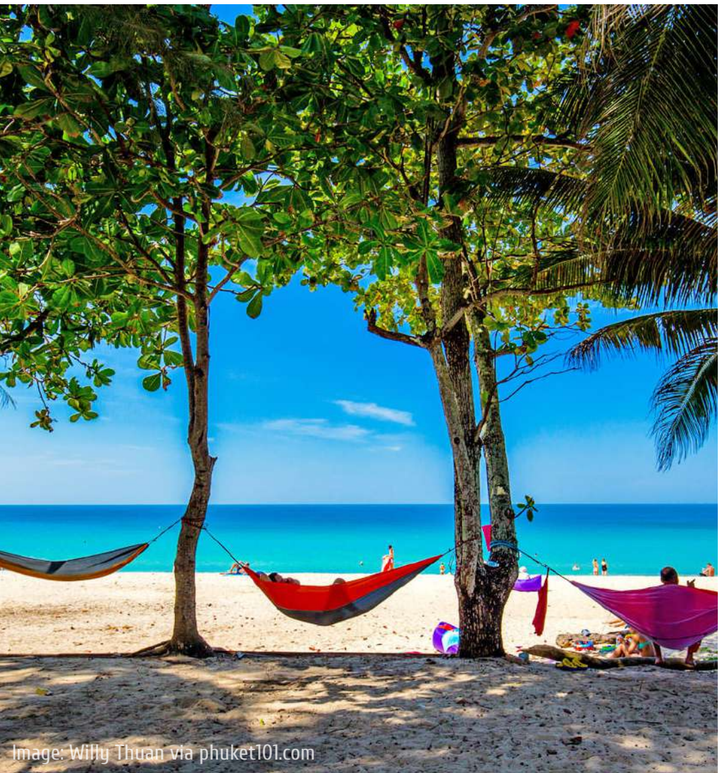


Image: Willy Thuan via phuket101.com

Image: Joey Santini via phuket.com

Location:
Surin

Activities:
Swimming, snorkeling, kayaking, surfing, bodyboarding

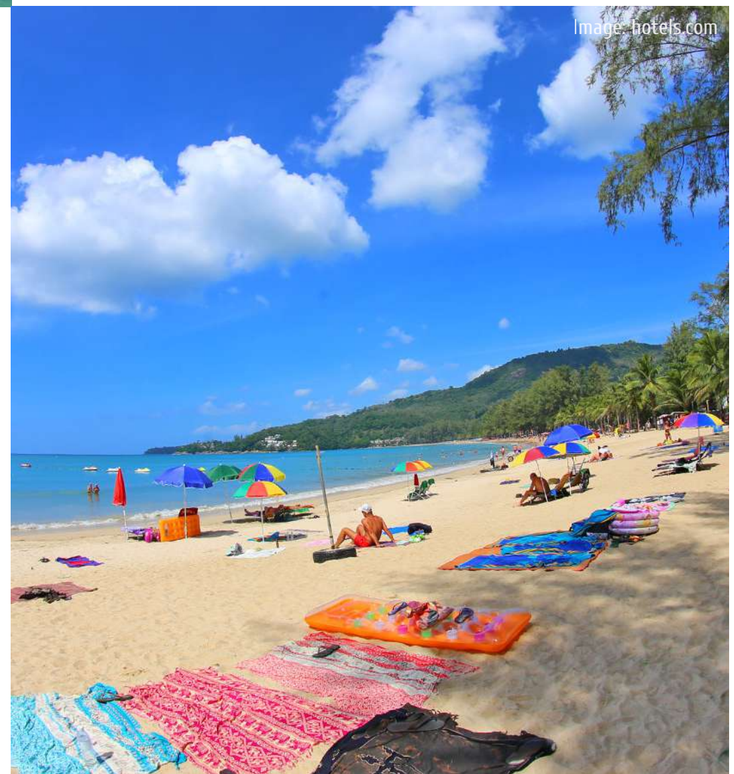
Kamala Beach

Kamala Beach is known for its quiet and relaxed atmosphere. One of the family-friendly beaches in Phuket, Kamala is lined with restaurants that serve scrumptious meals that the whole family can enjoy, has shops that range from budget to high-end, and the night life in this area consists of live shows and fun cocktails by the beach instead of the usual wild parties that are held on other nearby tourist spots. With shops that are more local-centric, Kamala Beach still has that very authentic feel to it that gives its visitors a genuinely Thai experience.

.

Location:
Kamala

Activities:
Swimming, surfing, scuba diving



Patong Beach

Patong Beach is the heart of Phuket where travellers can truly feel the thrilling pulse of the island. The most famous beach spot in Phuket, the dynamic Patong Beach is known for its lively shopping areas and vibrant nightlife. Big, bright and bustling, Patong is the perfect place for tourists who want fun-filled activities in paradise during the day followed by an exciting night of partying with fellow travellers. There are also lots of restaurants and attractions in the area where guests can enjoy more leisure options.

Image: dailystar.co.uk

Image: hotels.com

Image: phuket.com

Location:
Patong

Activities:
Swimming, parasailing, cable skiing

Yamu Beach

Beach access is exclusive to guests staying in villas within Cape Yamu

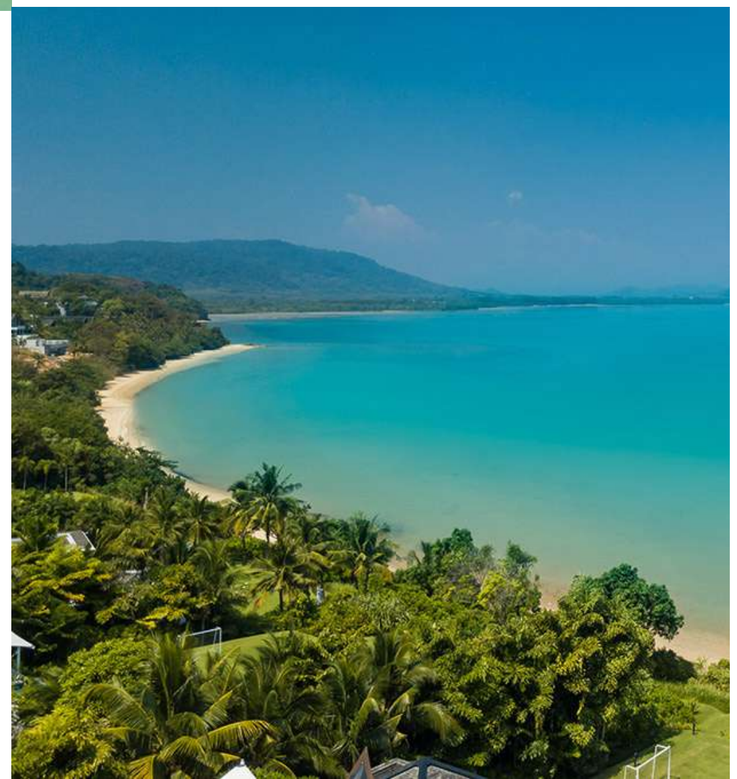
Yamu Beach is located on the north side of Cape Yamu, a corner of the island with a more relaxed and calming atmosphere, a contrast to the dynamic and vibrant ambiance of Phuket. Perfect for those who want a beautiful and serene escape from the bustling crowd, this location presents a laid-back vibe where travelers can explore the eastern coast of Phuket and its nearby islands. Exclusive, tranquil and simply stunning, this area also has some of the most luxurious villas in the island.

Location:
Cape Yamu

Activities:
Swimming, strolling along the beach,
visit nearby Kluay Islet during low-tide

How to get there:
Guests headed to Cape Yamu can ride public shuttles, taxis, or rent a private car or van.



Naka Islands

The Naka Islands, also known as Koh Naka or Naga Islands, are two isles located on the northeast coast of Phuket. Naka Yai, the larger of these two islands, is rapidly gaining popularity among tourists with its wide, sandy beaches shaded by lush coconut trees. Naka Yai is an ideal place to visit for those looking for some time away from the bustling city but still want to enjoy exciting beach activities. Located south of Naka Yai is the other island, Naka Noi, also known as the "Pearl Island." A day trip in Naka Noi would usually include a demonstration of how pearls are farmed and extracted from the oyster. Visitors of Naka Noi can also buy pearls of all sizes from the island's pearl shop.

Image: phuket.com

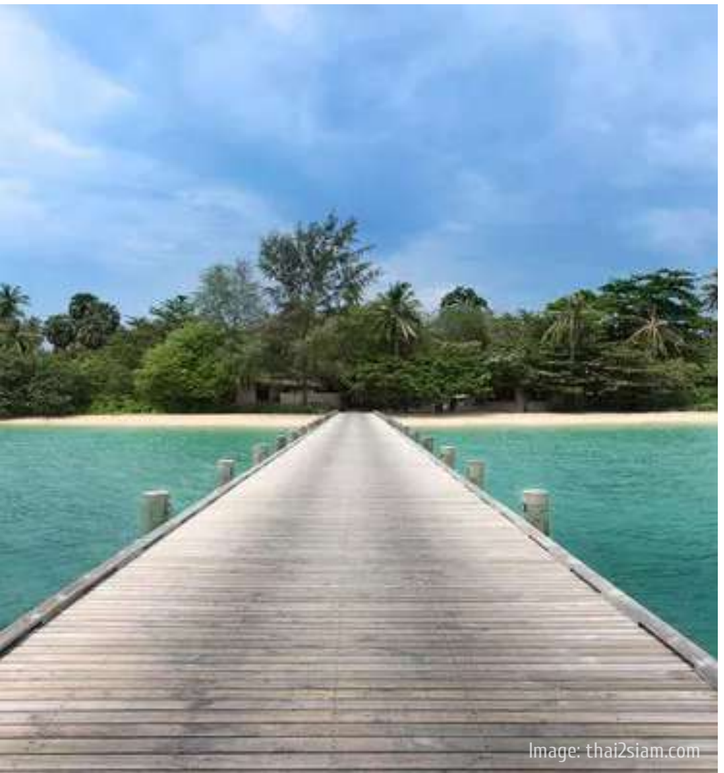


Image: thai2siam.com

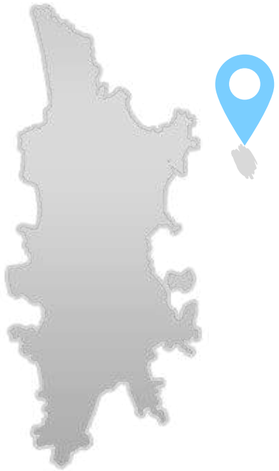
Image: phukettravelshop.com



Location:
Naka Yai and Naka Yoi

Activities:
Swimming, fishing, kayaking, hiking, snorkeling, visit and shop at Naka Noi's pearl farm

How to get there:
Long-tail boats or speedboats may be hired at the Ao Po Pier. Naka Yai is also part of many day tour itineraries.

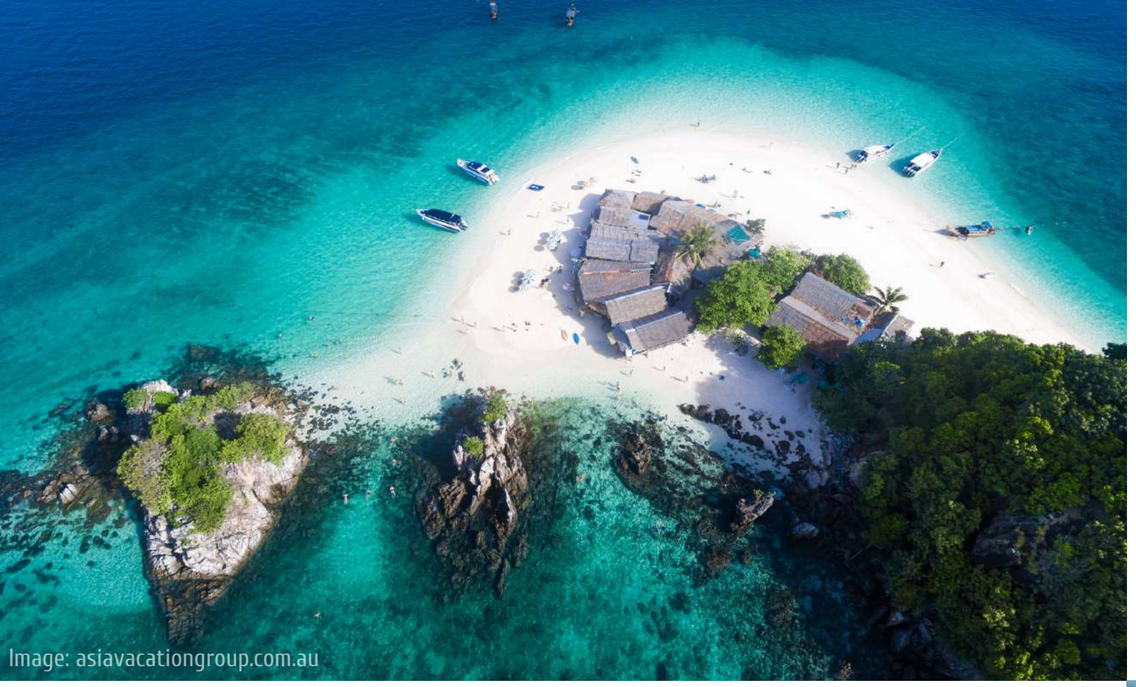


Image: asiavacationgroup.com.au

Koh Khai Nok

Koh Khai Nok, part of the three Khai Islands, is a small triangular peninsula with powdery white sand and clear, shallow waters. A great location for snorkeling, Koh Khai Nok is known for having different species of tropical fish that swim within the waters that surround the island. Used to the presence of humans, these charming aquatic creatures comfortably swim with the tourists paving way for guests to have that picture-perfect opportunity of swimming alongside colorful fish. The island itself offers a lot of scenic locations where visitors can take photos. Dining options are made available by the restaurants in the area and visitors can also souvenirs from the island's shops.

Location:
Khai Islands

Activities:
Swimming, lounging by the beach, strolling, snorkeling, snap selfies with the fish

How to get there:
Long-tail boats or speedboats can be rented. Khai Islands is also part of many day tour itineraries.

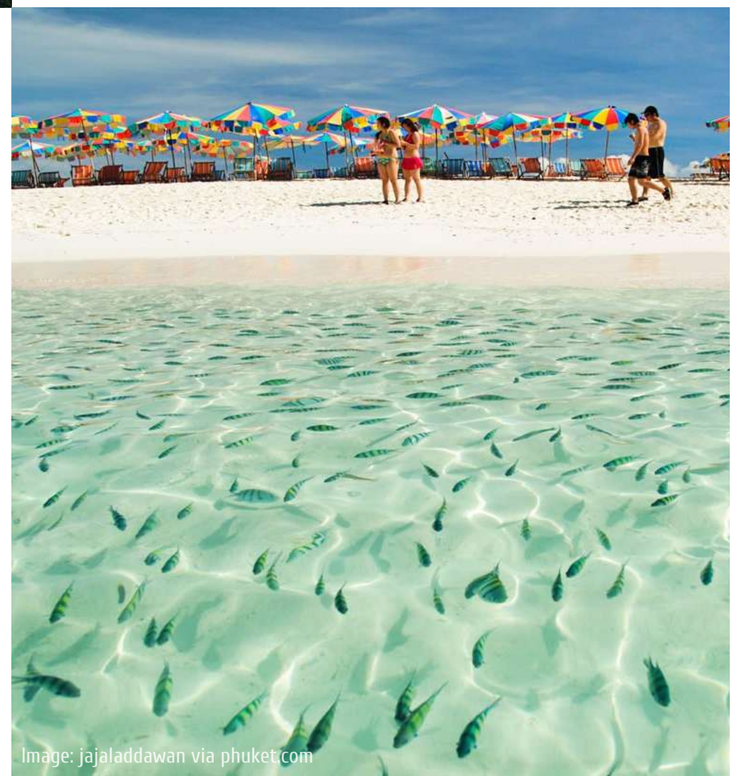

Image: jajaladdawan via phuket.com

Image: jiraphoto via phuket.com

THE PRIVATE WORLD

VILLAS & HOMES

VER 080922.0