DAY TRIPS

DIVE SITES

Tulamben

Home to Bali's famous WWII shipwreck, the USAT Liberty. Consistently voted one of the top wreck dives in the world. Encrusted with coral reef, teeming with marine life.

Shark Point

As its name implies, a chance to dive amongst the resident reef sharks. Great place to spot other pelagic fish such as tuna, ginat trevally, and the infamous sunfish.

Padang Bai

Tropical bay with stunning coral gardens. Turtles, cuttlefish, and white tip sharks can also be spotted here. A variety of small creatures amongst the healthy coral reef.

North West Bali

Menhangan Island is located within the 'Bali Barat National Park,' a marine-protected area. Well-known for its magnificent underwater world, turtles, and remarkable wall diving.

Amed

A less visited area with a diversity of sites ranging from a Japanese shipwreck, to amazing wall dives with huge gorgonian fans.
