Kubu Restaurant

ABOUT

Kubu in Indonesian language means Hut or Shelter, where Balinese farmers keep the rice after harvesting habitually. This tradition inspired Mandapa in designing its signature bamboo restaurant.

A tropical breeze and the soothing sound of water set the mood at Kubu which offers an intimate space with 9 private cocoons overlooking the Ayung river for you to enjoy fine Mediterranean-European cuisine in the option of A-la-carte or degustation menus

An extensive list of European wines is also available. For more intimate occasions, explore our private dining experiences.

CUCU

ABOUT

Expect a casual experience both in feel and pricing and totally focused on food: we save on luxurious tableware and never compromise on quality. Our restaurant offers small portions so you can try more and a unique signature menu meant to be shared.

We start by getting the basics right: the most amazing ingredients carefully selected for our restaurant and sourced exclusively from Indonesia to maximize freshness, support local farmers and growers and showcase the uniqueness of delicious local products.

Chef Kevin studies each ingredient, finds out how it is traditionally used to understand its potential and then prepares it applying western techniques developed through a painstaking international career in some of the world best restaurants.
